FEATURED ART OPENINGS

doubting thomas 856 Jefferson

The Bubble People find the Moontrees - by Val Seeley with minimalist artist Norbert Ziebold - Val has been painting the "Moontrees and Bubble People" for many years. There is a story that goes with them. Feel free to ask her about it at the opening, or let your own imagination tell you it's story. Either way it will be an evening of magical possibilities.

LOOP 2180 W 11th

Fume 17, a show of Graffiti by The Sign Guy The Sign Guy paints superhero salt shakers, fire-breathing "Catzillas" and other bright cartoony creatures that often have a slightly mischievous (sometimes even malevolent) edge. And he does it all on repurposed materials and found objects.

ROBERT HARTSHORN STUDIO & GALLERY 2342 Professor

The Art of Industry, Group show June, July, August — Works of art in acrylic, oil, multi-media, lighting, iron and sculpture that celebrate Cleveland's rustbelt heritage and emergence as the preeminent home of Industrial Chic. Artists Rob Hartshorn, Fred Gearhart, David Adshade, Lila Rose Kole, Bill Forester and Ken Love present different perspectives on how industry influences art.

TREEHOUSE 820 College

Elisa Vietri - As the premier photographer for the Cool Cleveland weekly newsletter, Elisa's work has fascinated Cleveland aficionados for several years. Her striking, off-beat nostalgia captures the great memories of Cleveland's past as well as the futuristic renditions of Cleveland's buildings, fashion, and people. She always has a camera in hand and she chronicles what she sees

GRAIN 2418 Professor

James Hamilton - Hamilton studied under the acclaimed Windsor chair maker Joe Graham. His innovative style has evolved further by combining the natural feel of reclaimed barn wood with edgy metal elements to create one of kind pieces. Including sculpture by artist, Matthew Albright.

TREMONT TAP HOUSE 2572 Scranton Rd

Justin Rose & Jacob Tobia Rose is a high school dropout turned photographer/musician, born in Northeast Ohio, raised in Louisiana, with time spent living in cities including Columbus, NYC, San Diego and San Francisco. Rose's works have been featured with MassAppeal, MishkaNYC and showcased in exhibits across the country. Jacob Tobia is a Cleveland-based photographer focused on urban and lifestyle imagery. His work showcases unorthodox views of Cleveland from above the streets.

TY FUN 815 Jefferson Ave

Susan Lynden - "My style of painting is detailed, striving to create works that are more life-like. In contrast, I have rediscovered the Art of Collage, a technique I first practiced during my years of study. Enjoying the distinction between my more realistic watercolors, the loose spontaneity and abstract interpretation utilized in my collages provides me with a new voice.

FAT CATS 2061 W 10th St

Betsy Jaszczak — Betsy is currently studying art education at Bowling Green State University. Her passion is oil painting, and is looking to pursue a career in it.

TREMONT SCOOPS 2362 Professor Ave

Garrett Weider - Cleveland-based collage art

THE SOUTH SIDE 2207 W 11th

Paige Knoefel — Paige is from the Cleveland's east side and attends Cleveland State University for Studio Art. Paige uses her knowledge and love of nature and music to express herself. She uses acrylic paint and mixed media to create a positive feeling, and uses past life experiences to spontaneously create her work.

Karaoke every Walkabout Tremont night from 10 pm to 1 am
