Treasure Hunt!

Buried treasure in Tremont? Who knew that Blackbeard himself sailed up the Cuyahoga River, dragged a treasure chest up the steep bank, and buried it somewhere along what is now Professor Avenue. Yikes! Take part in fun challenges, trivia questions, and photo opps TONIGHT throughout Tremont to win gift cards and other prizes.

Pick up your treasure map from a Tremont business including Treehouse, Hartshorn Studio, Loop, Prosperity Social Club, and the Flying Monkey – or download the map from walkabouttremont.com the day of the event (Fri, Sept 8).

Entries must be submitted by 10pm at the volunteer tent by Hartshorn Studio / Paul Duda Gallery

ROBERT HARTSHORN STUDIO & GALLERY 2342 Professor
The Art of Industry, Group show June, July, August – Works of art in acrylic, oil, multi-media, lighting, iron and sculpture that celebrates Cleveland's rustbelt heritage and emergence as the preeminent home of Industrial Chic. Artists Rob Hartshorn, Fred Gearhart, David Adshade, Lila Rose Kole, Bill Forester and Ken Love present different perspectives on how industry influences art.

TREEHOUSE 820 College
Scott Radke, Multi-media artist
Don't get spooked — despite their gnarled hands, corpse-colored skin and sunken eyes, Scott Radke's (@scottradkeart) creations come in peace. "If you wanna get creepy with it, it's real easy! Any film or music video [they are] involved in goes straight to the dark side," says the 44-year-old sculptor, whose work made a cameo appearance in Tim Burton's "Alice in Wonderland."

GRAIN 2418 Professor
James Hamilton - Hamilton studied under the acclaimed Windsor chair maker Joe Graham. His innovative style has evolved further by combining the natural feel of reclaimed barn wood with edgy metal elements to create one of kind pieces. Including sculpture by artist Matthew Albright.

TY FUN 815 Jefferson Ave
Tim Heron, Painter
Tim Heron is a portrait/landscape artist who works in oils, pastel and conte crayon. He studied at the Cooper School of Art, The Cleveland Institute of Art and Tri-C. His studio, "The Manly Pad," is at 2490 Professor Ave in Tremont. He's drawn at the Science Center, Cleveland Museum of Art and Natural History Museum.

His work has been published in the press worldwide, live on tv, online and in print on the following: Huffington Post, Today, Elle Magazine, Daily Mail, The Mirror, Bark Post, Mashable, Fox News Network, San Francisco Chronicle, The Telegraph, MSN, Bored Panda, Cleveland Magazine, American Photography Magazine, BuzzFeed and more.

GRUMPY'S 2621 W. 14th St
Theresa Kyriakidis- Disney Paintings
Theresa Kyriakidis has taken her childhood love of cartoons to canvas with whimsical acrylic paintings to brighten everyone's day. She loves being able to share her passion with others by bringing a little happily ever after into their homes. Theresa paints in a unique cartoon style ensuring every piece will bring a smile to your face. She enjoys mixing it up with landscapes, animal portraits and even some video game art couture.

LAVA LOUNGE 1307 Auburn Ave
Michael England - "Crushed" - a show of mixed media art. Michael is originally from Cincinnati and has developed the unique gift of bringing beer cans back to life in a new way. Using mixed media techniques, he combines cardboard, duck tape and beer cans into an invigorated 3D art form.

EDISON'S 2373 Professor Ave.
Jill LeMieux - "I create animal portraits with personality. Using pointillism and a mosaic-like style, I have developed a signature look that explores color, contrast, and texture. My technique, combined with the subject matter, results in work that is intense, yet playful and often humorous."

CLIMB CLEVELAND 2190 Professor St
Tremont's newest and physically challenging artist's venue
Artwork by multiple local artists.

FAHRENHEIT 2417 Professor Ave
