

FEATURED ART ON DISPLAY

DOUBTING THOMAS – 856 Jefferson

“You Lookin’ At Me?”—a group show curated by Ted Pikturna. A group show of painters and photographers that includes David Hollis, Bob Levkulich, Jim Holloway, Laura Cha and Ted Pikturna.

LOOP – 2180 W 11th

Aja Grant—photography
Aja Grant is a Cleveland native visual artist using digital media to create composites inviting viewers to see the blend of the modern human psyche with that of nature and our ancestral instincts. She holds a deep appreciation for teaching and inspiring others and views inspiration as a reciprocal process. Music courtesy of fana.

818 STUDIOS – 818 Jefferson (above Fahrenheit)

818 STUDIOS is a new photo studio and pop-up rental above Fahrenheit. Trained as a fine art photographer with a heavy background in the studio arts, Barbara has been an active photographer for 22 years+. She currently specializes in portrait, event and fine art photography. Meet the artist doing some impromptu portraits this month, then come back in October for a grand opening featuring the works of 12 artists.

ROBERT HARTSHORN STUDIO & GALLERY – 2342 Professor
Ken Love Lighting—industrial steampunk inspired art and lighting. Ken’s work is repurposed from old factories, scrap yards and picking anywhere and everywhere. Each one is unique, luminous and surprising.

TREEHOUSE – 820 College Ave.

Elise Cerino—photography
The inspiration for her photography is the city of Cleveland. She loves exploring Cleveland’s neighborhoods and finding beauty in what is seldom noticed.

STUDIO 888 – 2501 Professor Ave.

Johanna “Jobot” Tomsick—paintings and drawings
Johanna is an artist/philosopher who works in a variety of media from oils to found object sculptures. The works, from her series within/without (italicized), are spiritually motivated, borrowing themes from Western philosophy and Eastern religions. One fundamental question the images ask is, how do you choose to express your inherent divinity?

TY FUN – 815 Jefferson Ave

Steve C. Hammerschmidt—photography
Steve is a native Clevelander who focuses on panoramic, architectural and abstract photography.

EDISON’S 2373 PROFESSOR

Greg Renkas -- “(Not so) Amateur dreamer going pro...”
Hoping to share some of my paintings I’ve done over the years. There are 11x17 and 8x10 prints for sale, along with some originals.
